

CANCER C.A.R.E COMMUNITY

COMMUNITY

AWARENESS

RESEARCH

EMOTIONAL WELL-BEING

SESSION TOPIC: PATIENT EMPOWERMENT

Our Cancer C.A.R.E Community is here for you and your loved ones, offering heartfelt support and aloha. You'll receive guidance on groundbreaking treatments, emotional well-being resources, practical assistance with navigating care, and more. We are committed to helping you face this journey, and providing you with strength, hope and compassion.

Join us for an inspiring and supportive event designed for cancer patients, survivors, thrivers and caregivers to become empowered and gain greater control during their cancer journeys.

SPEAKERS:

Naoto T. Ueno, MD, PhD, FACP
Director
University of Hawai'i Cancer Center
Two-time Cancer Survivor

Jami Fukui, MD
Co-Faculty Director
Community Outreach and Engagement
University of Hawai'i Cancer Center
Breast Medical Oncologist
Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children

Susan Hirano
Hope Ambassador
University of Hawai'i Cancer Center
Cancer Thriver and Patient Advocate

Join us:

APRIL 5, 2025 | 9 - 11 A.M.
SULLIVAN CONFERENCE CENTER
at the University of Hawai'i Cancer Center
701 Ilalo Street, Honolulu, HI 96813

Register for in-person or online by

MARCH 28

go.hawaii.edu/rx8

